

Holt Community Arts Council presents ArtSLAM!
An opportunity to watch dynamic art being created and bid to take a custom piece home with you!

Capital Area Artists

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 22nd, 2018

4:30 P.M. TO 8:30 P.M.

at Delhi Charter Township's Veterans Memorial Gardens
(directly behind Township Hall at 2074 Aurelius Road in Holt)

During this fast-paced art creation opportunity, individual artists take turns on rotating canvases, building on the work of the other artists to create something truly unique. Music, an engaged audience and the synergy of creative expression will make our debut ArtSLAM an event you won't want to miss. The best part, once the pieces are completed, visitors can bid in the silent auction and bring a piece of the magic home.

Artist Participation

To participate, complete the following application. Participating artists will receive a $50.00 consideration and a complimentary volunteer bracelet to BeerWorks craft beer tasting. All basic materials necessary to create the acrylic artwork will be supplied (canvas, easel, basic colors, brushes, water, towels, etc.). Artists are welcome to bring other materials and equipment to use, but will not be compensated beyond the the payment and access listed above. Each artist will also be featured in promotional materials and on the Holt Community Arts Council's social media outlets.

Artists will also have space near the ArtSLAM stage to display and sell any artwork or other promotional items. Artists are responsible for setting up, tearing down and operating these display and retail areas.

By submitting their application, artists agree to commit to the following schedule:
4:30 P.M. set up, 5:00 P.M. ArtSLAM creation begins, 7:00 P.M. ArtSLAM creation ends, 7:00 P.M. silent auction begins, 8:00P P.M. auction winners announced.

Artists further understand that all work product of the ArtSlam event are the property of the Holt Community Arts Council and proceeds from the auction sales belong to HCAC.
